

I am very concerned about narrowing the breadth of ownership of radio and television stations. I support the retention of the current ownership rules.